Greetings from Cameroon and Happy New Year!

December was both an exciting and busy month for aviation as we supported a New Testament dedication in the language of Noni on December 22! It required both of our aircraft and all of our pilots and ground crew to move roughly 35 passengers between Yaounde and Lassin. We praise the Lord for good weather and operation of the equipment. Everyone made it to the dedication and we were even able to add a last minute medical emergency flight to the program as well!

Reading of the Noni New Testament!

One of my passengers made a short video of the flight that you might enjoy. We are in the middle of dry season and Harmattan, dust that is blown in from the Sahara desert. It is still quite noticeable in the video. Occasionally we cannot fly at all due to restricted visibility. Praise the Lord it was not a problem during this dedication!

Not only was I able to help out with transportation through aviation but I also drove a vehicle load of passengers from Banso to the dedication which allowed me to attend as well. It was great to see all the passengers enjoy the celebration of the Bible dedication! I posted more pictures on my photo gallery at www.petersonfamily.info/robert/gallery2.

After the dedication, I stayed in Banso and enjoyed the hospitality of Ken and Chris Vanweerdhuizen for a very nice Christmas break. It was a great blessing to be a part of a family for the Christmas season as well as visit friends and do some hiking around Banso.

Here are a few other praises and prayer requests.

Praises:

- 1) Spiritual encouragement and growth. Reading "Hearing God" by Dallas Willard.
- 2) Good month of flying for Noni Bible dedication and others
- 3) Good fellowship and spiritual involvement with several Cameroonian friends
- 4) Renewed health and strength after a lingering cold earlier this month.

Prayer:

- 1) Continued spiritual growth and daily dependence on the Lord
- 2) Wisdom and safety within aviation - prioritization and effectiveness.
- 3) For several men that I continue to witness to or encourage spiritually.

In Him,
